The Best Investment

The actions of the steward in the Gospel today leave a bit of a sour taste. He cleverly wrote off part of the debt his colleagues owed to their Master so that they would owe him a favour. St. Luke contrasts the morality of this world with that of the new age Jesus had come to proclaim. Instead of using devious practices we should be faithful in everything we do. But we should be determined in pursuing justice and mercy.

CAFOD in Syria

September is an exciting time for children returning to school, however for some it's a lifeline. Alaa, a 13-year-old girl from Syria, has been living in Lebanon with her family since they fled the fighting in their home country. Like other children living as refugees, Alaa needs counselling to help her deal with her traumatic experiences. CAFOD supports the Caritas Migrant Centre in Beirut where children like Alaa can learn, socialise and integrate into Lebanese society. The classes are providing normality for Alaa who says "I want to be a doctor or to teach English. But I really want to go home."
