

St. Anthony's Little Church

God will see justice done to his chosen who cry to him day and night even when he delays to help them. I promise you, he will see justice done to them, and done speedily.

Pray continually and never lose heart

Jesus' disciples might well lose heart after he had returned to his Father so Jesus taught them to persist in prayer. He told a parable about a widow who pleaded with a judge for her rights. Although this judge disregarded both God's law and human need, nevertheless, the woman persisted in her demands, and the judge finally relented. The woman is the object of the story, not the judge. Despite the setbacks she persisted with her pleading. Jesus said, if even an unjust judge could be persuaded to giving a widow justice, how much more would God answer those who cried for mercy.

CAFOD - & Amazon Synod

Pope Francis has called an Amazonian Synod to take place in Rome this month. He seeks a "Church with an Amazonian face". The Synod is a way for the Church to listen to the people of the Amazon and respond with them to the devastation facing them and their environment. CAFOD and our partner CAAAP (The Amazonian Centre for Anthropology and Practical Application) have been working alongside the local Church in Peru's Amazon to help them listen to indigenous people, particularly women and young people and to provide pastoral workers with tools to communicate their experiences of discrimination, inequality, gender-based violence, exploitation in the workplace, loss of cultural identity and loss of their ancestral lands.

'Extraordinary Month of Mission' Prayer

God our Father, when your Son Jesus Christ rose from the dead, he commissioned his followers to 'go and make disciples of all nations'. Through our Baptism you send us out to continue this mission among all peoples. Empower us by the gifts of the Holy Spirit to be courageous and enthusiastic in bearing witness to the Gospel, so that the mission entrusted to us, which is still far from completion, may bring life and light to the world. May all peoples experience the saving love and generous mercy of Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.
