Two men went to the Temple

Another parable on prayer. Two men went to the Temple to pray. The Pharisee, so proud of his observance of the law, avoiding contamination by those he regarded as sinners. His saw no need of pardon from God for his sins.

The tax-collector was despised as a public sinner. Acutely aware of his faults and failings, he humbly prayed for God's forgiveness.

Jesus said that he was justified because his recognized his need for God's mercy and salvation and sought forgiveness.

CAFOD and Remembrance

Each November, Memorial Masses are held across England and Wales in honour of CAFOD supporters and loved ones who have died. It is a time to come together and to reflect on the lasting impact our loved ones have had on the world. We pray they find peace and that we can continue their legacy of love in their memory. At each Mass we present a Book of Remembrance which includes names of supporters and friends who have sadly passed away during the year.

For more information about remembering your loved one through CAFOD's work or to add a name to our Book of Remembrance please contact Paul Wyre at pwyre@cafod.org.uk or telephone 01772 733310.
