Endurance will win you your lives

We appreciate wonderful buildings, wonderful achievements. Jesus' contemporaries had the same feelings for their magnificent Temple, especially because it was considered to be a sign of God's presence on earth. But Jesus told his disciples that the Temple would one day be destroyed. While people believed that such an event would herald the end of the age, Jesus warned his followers not to be misled by false messiahs, wars and cosmic signs. Sufferings and persecutions would occur in every age but his disciples need not be concerned as to how they would defend themselves. They must trust in God's continuing presence as they faithfully witnessed to the gospel.

CAFOD aid requests

Right now, 783 million people live on less than £1.50 a day. Over 845 million people will go to bed hungry and more than 780 million people around the world don't have access to clean, safe water. CAFOD believes that every person has equal value and belongs in one global family and if one of us is hurt, hungry or abandoned then we are all hurt, hungry and abandoned. Currently we have to turn away one in three requests for help, simply due to lack of money. With your support, together we can and will go far beyond our current reach, bringing hope to those living in the hardest conditions. Thank you.
