Costing not less than everything

Today's readings are like the squares on a patchwork quilt, all separate pieces calling out for some golden thread to bring them together to produce a beautiful work of art. The images offered to us would probably not be our choice of material. The gold thread, like treasure hidden in a field, symbolises who we are in God. It is the sacredness of each one of us. T.S. Eliot describes this treasure as

*A condition of complete simplicity
Costing not less than everything.*

When we set our hearts on possessing something we may feel that it is beyond our reach because it 'costs an arm and a leg' but we will make the necessary sacrifices in order to own that particular object. In today's reading Jesus uses similar but more exaggerated language to illustrate that to be true to who we are in God costs not less than everything. It means cutting out of our lives all that refuses to acknowledge and celebrate the sacredness in each one of us. It is a new way of seeing. Jesus is asking us to look within, to find our stumbling blocks which prevent us, and others, from becoming who we are. 'In the spiritual world stumbling blocks are a part of us. They are as much a part of us as are our hands, feet and eyes. Stumbling blocks are the patterns of life we have created for ourselves or to which we have been subjected by others but which we perpetuate. They are the habits of seeing, thinking, and acting that blind us to who we, our neighbours and God really are. They distort reality so that we cannot respond appropriately.' (M. Marsh)

Today we are being invited to acknowledge and celebrate the sacred. In response to that invitation, we may then want to choose our own material for our quilt, with each square depicting a memory of when we have experienced the sacred in each one of us, in creation and in the circumstances of our lives. This may have cost us everything but T.S. Eliot continues the above verse with the words of Julian of Norwich:

*And all shall be well and
All manner of thing shall be well*

BIDDING PRAYER INTENTIONS

Jesus said "I am the way, the truth and the light". May the Church always demonstrate and proclaim this with conviction and compassion.

As we approach Family Fast Day on Friday, grant us grace, to put the flourishing of all people and the wonder of your creation at the heart of all we do, as we strive to be guardians of our common home.

On Monday we celebrate the feast of St Vincent de Paul, thanking God for this life of service. We pray for the members of our own SVP Group - may they be strengthened and rewarded for the service they constantly and quietly provide.

We pray for the sick and house-bound of our parish and for those who care for them, We pray for the sick and house-bound of our parish and for those who care for them, especially Julie Mary Butler (Machin), Veronica Judge, May Rigby, Chris Goldsmith, Jo Counsell, Carole Adnitt, Lawrence Dunnagan, Theresa Wilkinson, Bill Embery, Frank Stanton, Lydia Worgan, Deacon John Kilshaw, Alice Myerscough, Les Farrer;

for those who have died recently: William Wilson, William (Bill) Ash, Victoria Chester, Jack Mounsey; and those whose anniversaries occur around this time: Michael Crompton, Thomas Gielty, Jack Kilshaw, Agnes & Joseph Billington, James Nickson, Kathleen Morton, Raymond Whittle. May they rest in peace.

CAFOD virtual meeting with MP Ben Wallace

Our CAFOD Group has written to request a zoom meeting with our MP around the time of the Climate Conference, Cop26 -as follows: ". The coronavirus pandemic has had a catastrophic impact on the world's poorest communities, with 150 million people set to fall into extreme poverty as a result. Meanwhile, the climate crisis has again made headlines, and it is the same communities who are the hardest hit. With Britain hosting both the G7 and the COP26 this year, we think that our country has a crucial role to play in tackling global poverty, injustice and the climate crisis. We would appreciate the opportunity for our community to share our concerns with you and learn more about your work in Parliament on these issues." Ben Wallace has agreed but the date has not been fixed. Would any parishioners like to be involved in this discussion? Have a word with Fr. Peter or one of the CADOD Group.

Fairtrade

Bernadette writes: "Thankyou to all for Fairtrade Sales of £89 and donations £13.03 which will be accumulated for World Gifts. The next Fairtrade Stall will be next weekend 2nd/3rd October. Christmas cards may be ordered."

Macmillan Cancer Support

The Knit & Natter group are hosting a Macmillan fundraising event after the 6.00pm and 9.30 Mass this weekend. As well as cake and refreshments for sale in the Padua room, raffle tickets will be on sale at the back of the church. We also have a sale of work. Come and look for some early Christmas presents. The raffle will be pulled after Mass on Sunday by an independent adjudicator, i.e. Ian Mulholland.

First Reconciliation and Holy Communion

We're half-way through the preparation for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please pray for the children and their families. Next Sessions are this Wednesday.
