What is our cornerstone?

'In relation to architecture, a cornerstone is traditionally the first stone laid for a structure, with all other stones laid in reference to this stone. A cornerstone marks the geographical location by orienting a building in a specific direction. Some cornerstones include time capsules from, or engravings commemorating the time a particular building was built.' [1]

Today's gospel asks us to look at the cornerstone which determines the direction of our lives. 'This gospel is an allegory about negative energy, the spirit of rejection. The tenants are antagonistic and oppositional about everything. They beat or stoned or killed everyone. Oppositional energy just knows what it is against. It is sort of a sad substitute for vision, yet negative people feed on it. It knows what it is against but it doesn't know what it is for, what it is in love with. What we reject and hate says much more about ourselves than about the people we hate or reject. If we want to know what or who our real God is we need to look at what we reject: if we reject poor people, our god is riches, money and success; if we reject foreigners, it is because we have made a god of our own country; if we reject anybody different from us then we have idolised ourselves, we've made a god of ourselves. What we fear or reject tells us what we really worship.' [2]

Not included in today's Gospel, but only two verses later are the words, "When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard Jesus' parables, they knew he was talking about them." This parable is set in the final days of Jesus' ministry in Jerusalem where we saw the tragic consequences of negative energy. The parable became reality when Jesus, the son of God, was crucified.

'When fear and rejection is our starting point, we are subconsciously creating a foundation stone which consists of our own self-centred priorities. However, when love becomes the cornerstone which determines the direction of our lives, we will see what we need to renounce.' [2] In the second reading St Paul gives us an alternative to the spirit of rejection. "Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things and the God of peace will be with you." These 'things' – and many others – are already placed in the timeless capsule of our Christ-centred cornerstone.

Day of Prayer for Prisoners and their Dependants - today

Prisoners' Sunday is a time to think about how we as individuals, as a Church and as communities are serving those affected by imprisonment. Prisoners, people with convictions, and their children and families often find themselves on the margins of our society. Yet Jesus challenges us with His words: I was in prison and you came to see me.

Halloween Party

St Vincent De Paul Society

"SVP would welcome anyone who might want to learn more about the work of this group within the community to join our St Vincent De Paul Meeting in the Padua Room 11am on 11th October 2023. The meeting takes up to an hour and we would love to meet you and talk about our work." Mary Ward, President.

The Eucharist in Scripture

Join us at 7.00pm on Wednesday 11 October as we continue the short course to explore the meaning of the Mass and the Holy Eucharist. For more information contact Jackie Stopyra, 07934 667293 Jackie.stopyra@gmail.com

Table Top Sale

The next Table Top Sale is on Saturday 14 October, 11am-2pm, in St Anthony's Annexe, St Anthony's Drive. Feel free to come along and browse, buy or simply have a brew. All proceeds to Rwanda Group Trust to help the poorest of the poor in that country.

Church Music

It would be good to involve other musicians from the parish, especially younger members. A number of our children receive tuition in school. Come and put your skills to good use, even if you don't feel particularly confident. Angie is very happy to give encouragement and support. If you want to speak to her ring 07581 629798.
