“Stay in your lane.”

‘Has anyone ever said this to us? Have we ever said it to someone? It’s an admonishment. It reveals our reluctance to let other people change, and our resistance to changing ourselves.’ [1] Personal prejudices and agendas can block us from listening to the content of what another person has to say, no matter how relevant or wise it is. [2] Rejection becomes a way of coping. [3]

‘The people of Nazareth are astonished by Jesus’ teaching and the miracles worked through him. Yet they do not accept him. They believe the familiar. The ordinary excludes the extraordinary.’ [4] ‘They decide that Jesus is presuming too much, exceeding his bounds, not staying in his lane. “He could work no miracle there,” Mark writes with grim finality. The people’s small-mindedness, their lack of trust and their inability to embrace a new facet of Jesus’ life blocks the healing work he longs to do for the people he loves. Something precious is lost when we turn away from the extraordinary within the ordinary. We miss the presence of God in our midst. [1]

‘There was more to Jesus than the people of Nazareth could know. Indeed there is always more to every human being than we are aware of. We can never fully probe the profound mystery of another person’s life. We each need to approach everyone with the awareness that there is more here than I can see. It was Jesus’ very ordinariness that made it difficult for the people of Nazareth to see him as he really was, in all his mystery. God was powerfully present to them in and through someone who was as ordinary, in many respects, as they themselves. God continues to come to us today in and through the ordinary, in and through those who are most familiar to us, in and through our life experiences, even those experiences that initially seems very negative. The gospels suggest that the primary way God comes to us is in and through the everyday. This is what we mean by the incarnation. The Word became flesh and dwelt among us. The ordinary is shot through with God’s presence.’ [5] Jesus’ invitation to the people of Nazareth, and to us, is to leave the path of labels, boxes and prejudice and to rather walk with him on the path of openness to transformation.

CAFOD Parish Walk & Picnic

The rain kept off and it was a lovely walk by the intrepid few.

St. Anthony's Pram Club

Meets in the Annexe every Tuesday 1.30 till 3pm term time. It is a toddler group for new mums and babes and pre-school children. It is an opportunity for new parents to meet other new parents, for social, chat and play and is a good introduction to other groups held with in the Annexe, such as Playgroup, Pre-school, Guides, Brownies, Rainbows, Scouts, Cubs, Beavers, Since Covid all these groups are struggling due to a lack of adult leaders, who have not got a small child to watch while they are playing. There fore I am asking if the people of St. Anthony's Parish can offer some help, some of the time/ all of the time, to make teas, help to set up or to tidy away, or just chat to people to make them feel welcome. Thank you. Ros Holland.
