Proclaim the year of the Lord's favour

'Today's gospel reading is often described as Jesus' inaugural address, his mission statement. He ends the quote from Isaiah with the proclamation of a year of favour from the Lord. He omits the words which follow in Isaiah 61:2 : "... and the day of our God's vengeance." Jesus has not come to proclaim judgment. His message is different. Its not a message of retribution or retributive justice. This is a classic text for what we call restorative justice. God's justice is fulfilled by lovingly and patiently remaking us into His image and likeness. Jesus has come to replace the old Jewish love of law with a new law of love.' [1]

Jesus has come to proclaim good news to the poor, to captives, to the blind and to the oppressed. 'Poverty might be about material needs; it might also be poverty of love, hope or meaning. The captive might be a prisoner, an addicted person, or one overcome by anger and resentment. Blindness is not only physical but can also be emotional or spiritual. Oppression can be the result of physical or emotional violence. Today Jesus brings us good news of healing and freedom. With one foot in the past and one in the future we straddle and completely miss the present: today. We become captive to what was, oppressed by what might be, and blind to what is. To the extent we are unable to hear Jesus' words we are either stuck in the past or living in a future we do not yet have.' [2]

'Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.' 'What we hear depends greatly on what we bring to our listening. Do we bring our presence, openness and receptivity? The verses following today's reading indicate that while Jesus' words filled some of his followers with hope, there were many people in the synagogue who closed their minds to the message and the messenger.' [3]

Jesus proclaimed 'the year of the Lord's favour.' Pope Francis has declared the year 2025 a Holy Year of Jubilee and its theme is 'Pilgrims of hope.' The concept of Jubilee is rooted in the earliest days of Judeo-Christian tradition and its purpose was to re-establish a proper relationship with God, with one another and with all creation – and ourselves. Hope is the message of today's gospel. On our journey through this year, we are being invited to be pilgrims of hope and healing to all that is poor, captive, blind and oppressed in ourselves, in others and in creation. 'Hope is a vitality of spirit which opens our eyes to the beauty of things, however imperilled, degraded, or difficult to love they may appear to be. We try to view the world not as it is packaged, presented and sold to us but as we imagine it could be. We do not look away from the world; we look directly at it and allow the spirit of hope - the necessary driver of change - to inspire us to action.' [4]

Offertory / donations giving

There was a positive response to the notes about the cost of money handling last week. Thank you. One thing missing was the details of the parish bank account for those who are setting up a standing order on their phone. It's a bit tricky! The name of the account in LRC DTR Parish of St Anthony-Preston. That's probably too long for the space allowed but St. Anthony-Preston should be acceptable along with the account number 81335308 and the sort code 40-27-02. Put your name down as the reference.

A reminder of the main points.

Standing orders cost the parish 15p each to receive, regardless of the amount donated, this is the cheapest method. However, four weekly donations costs 60p per month whereas a single monthly donation costs 15p per month so monthly donations are better. There are standing order forms at the back of church or you can probably do it by online banking.

Donating by card costs us 16p per £10 donated.

Donating cash costs 15p per £10 to pay into the bank and if you use pre-printed envelopes, each box of envelopes costs just over £2.

Cheques are the most expensive, costing 50p per cheque to clear plus £1.50 per month to pay our cheques into the bank. We don't get many cheques so if we only get one cheque in a month the value of that donation is reduced by £2.

Special Collections – those using envelopes regularly contribute to special collections. It is possible to donate to these by card, less easy by standing order.

This week we have to order new boxes of offertory envelopes, If you make donations by the card machine you probably don't need offertory envelopes in future. If you make monthly donations by standing order you may want to have Special Collection envelopes only. Please let us know.

The biggest benefit comes from donations that are Gift Aided. These add a further 25p for every £1 given if you are a tax payer. We need to update our Gift Aid lists so more about that soon. But if you do not currently Gift Aid your donations please take a Gift Aid declaration from the back of church. Thank you again for your support of our parish.
